201 LEGAL STATUS OF THE SCHOOL BOARD

I. PURPOSE

The care, management and control of the school is vested by statutory and constitutional authority in the school board. The school board shall carry out the mission of the school with diligence, prudence, and dedication to the ideals of providing the finest public education. The purpose of this policy is to define the authority, duties and powers of the school board in carrying out its mission.

II. GENERAL STATEMENT OF POLICY

- A. The school board is the governing body of the school. As such, the school board has responsibility for the care, management, and control over all aspects of the school.
- B. Generally, elected members of the school board have binding authority only when acting as a school board legally in session, except where specific authority is provided to school board members or officers individually. Generally, the school board is not bound by an action or statement on the part of an individual school board member unless the action is specifically directed or authorized by the school board.

III. DEFINITION

“School board” means the governing body of the school.

IV. ORGANIZATION AND MEMBERSHIP

- A. The membership of the school board consists of up to 10 elected board members. The term of office is two years.
- B. There may be other ex officio members of the school board as provided by law. The director is an ex officio member.
- C. A majority of voting members constitutes a quorum. The act of the majority of a quorum is the act of the school board.

V. POWERS AND DUTIES

- A. The school board has powers and duties specified by statute. The school board's authority includes implied powers in addition to specific powers granted by the legislature.
- B. The school board exercises administrative functions. It also has certain powers of a legislative character and other powers of a quasi-judicial character.
- C. The school board shall manage the school, adopt rules for its organization, government, and instruction; prescribe textbooks and courses of study; and make and authorize contracts.
- D. The school board shall have the general charge of the business of the school, its facilities and property, and of the interest of the schools.
- E. The school board, among other duties, shall perform the following in accordance with applicable law:
 - 1. conduct the business of the schools and pay indebtedness and proper expenses;
 - 2. make and authorize contracts;
 - 3. employ and contract with necessary qualified teachers and discharge the same;
 - 4. provide services to promote the health of its pupils;
 - 5. provide school buildings;
 - 6. purchase, sell, and exchange school property and equipment as deemed necessary by the school board for school purposes;
 - 7. provide for payment of claims against the school, and prosecute and defend actions by or against the school, in all proper cases;
 - 8. employ and discharge necessary employees and contract for other services; and
 - 9. procure insurance against liability of the school , its officers and employees.
- F. The school board, at its discretion, may perform the following:

1. arrange for transportation of pupils to and from school, as governed by statute;
2. provide library facilities, public evening schools, adult and continuing education programs, and summer school programs;
3. furnish school lunches for pupils and teachers on such terms as the school board determines;
4. enter into agreements with one or more other schools to provide for agreed upon educational services;
5. lease rooms or buildings for school purposes;
6. authorize the use of school facilities for community purposes that will not interfere with their use for school purposes;
7. authorize co curricular and extracurricular activities;
8. receive, for the benefit of the school, bequests, donations, or gifts for any proper purpose; and
9. perform other acts as the school board shall deem to be reasonably necessary or required for the governance of the schools.
